

Hold This Up To Your Forehead:

(side view)

(top view)

wt., 7 lbs

It radiates a body of knowledge directly into your braincells (limited, of course, to a single body at one time: loading too much can be fatal.) There are several models, for many different disciplines.

Test the ultimate capacity of your brain for material knowledge!

The material in our cannister contains concepts and formulae, PLUS experience.

It Goes Here:

Right over the slight bulge on either side of your forehead.

(application time, approx. 10 seconds)

We have also designed a unit for erasing gathered knowledge (unfortunately, it cannot be selective.)
